The Canon EOS 500D / Rebel T1i offers one continuous shooting mode rated at 3.4fps, just a fraction below the 3.5fps of the EOS 450D / XSi; both models are clearly much slower than the 6.3fps on the higher-end EOS 50D which manages to achieve this speed partly thanks to faster data readout from its sensor.

In an effort to reduce the minimum focus distance (MFD) of my 400mm lens (3.5 meter) I ordered a Canon 500D 77mm close-up lens filter. This is mainly to eliminate the carrying of a second body with macro lens when out in the field with the long lens (for Birds in Flight).
