When we are living life on purpose, every life experience helps us decode the hieroglyphics of meaning. In the words of Emerson, “The world becomes a glass dictionary.” 8.

8 Principles of Purpose-Driven Leadership | SUCCESS

Self discipline is where the rubber meets the road in truly living a life of purpose. Without discipline, the distractions of life become major roadblocks to fulfilling God’s purpose for our life. As followers of Christ we must exercise self-control and restraint. We must keep the goal before us. (1 Cor. 9:23-27).

The characteristics of leadership – vision, action, and communication – suggest that the acquisition of power is not its purpose.

Purposeful Leadership and Power - Purposeful Action

Living purposefully means staying focused on what's important and not being distracted. That is more and more difficult in a society which is increasingly designed to distract us (television, shopping malls, the Internet, etc.). Distraction is one obstacle to a purposeful life. The other is a desire for comfort or pleasant feelings.
